

I am very satisfied with how wisconsin's 'Do Not Call List' is working. In my opinion, the FCC can handle this responsibility only if they use wisconsin's law as the national model. I do not want to sacrifice a very successful program for 80% of wisconsin families for the benefit soliciting companies and their lobbyists.